

	Autumn Term	Spring Term		Summer Term
Year 10	Exam Unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Health & Safety - Different file types - Moodboards - Mindmaps - Visualisation diagrams - Scripts - Timeplan - Storyboard - Target audience 	Exam unit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Categorising graphics How digital graphics are used Creating work plans Gantt charts How to use Photoshop Evaluating graphics 	NEA 1 - Creating a digital graphic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -File types -What are graphics? -Why are graphics used? -What are the properties of graphics -How do graphics differ for print and graphics? -What is dpi/pixels/compression? -How does the audience impact on the layout of graphics? -What pre-production planning methods would be suitable for the assignment -How to interpret a client brief -What to include in an evaluation of a product -How do graphics differ depending on their target audience. 	NEA 1 - Creating a digital graphic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Plan digital graphic for specific target audience -Create digital graphic Evaluate final product
Year 11	NEA 2 – Creating a Digital Video Sequence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identifying different file formats - Produce a storyboard - Camera angles - The uses of audio - Intellectual property & copyright - Film a video sequence - Learn different editing techniques - How to save a file in a high quality format 	NEA 3 – Animation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The purpose of animation - Different types of animation - Plan an animation - How to storyboard - Create an animation for a specific audience - Suitable file formats for a digital animation - Copyright issues surrounding images, graphics and logos 		Exam Revision 1.5 hr exam